

Ringwood School Year 11 Revision Evening

How to revise for GCSE Music

(please note, there is no exam for BTEC Music)

How to help- what can parents and carers do?

- Encourage students to regularly listen to the set works
- Encourage use of their revision cards to learn key terms
- Test students on their key terms
- Ensure they get the right terms under the right element

Courage
Ambition
Integrity
Respect

Preparing for the November mocks

- Students should not panic!
- The exam is worth 40% of the overall GCSE grade
- The other 60% is made up of NEA (coursework)
- Use of Focus on Sound
- BBC Bitesize
- Revision cards
- Annotated scores

Courage
Ambition
Integrity
Respect

Resources available to your child:

Courage
Ambition
Integrity
Respect

- All students have access to Focus on Sound – lessons and tests on each set work
- Copies of set work musical scores, with annotations
- Revision resources for each set works, in a variety of styles
- Their own revision cards
- There are limited exam papers available – we use these in lessons and leading up to the exam

Useful resources online:

- BBC Bitesize
- YouTube videos for each set work

Contact details

- Lindsay Himmel - Head of Music
- lhimmel@ringwood.hants.sch.uk

Courage
Ambition
Integrity
Respect

