Part Time Performing Arts Technician

Ringwood School are looking for a flexible Part time Performing Arts Technician to provide all aspects of technical support with shows, maintenance, storage and the setting up of technical equipment. We are looking for a team player with excellent communication skills who likes working with young people who are learning; who has a proven track record of delivering a friendly and professional service with excellent attention to detail and who demonstrates a calm and logical approach to problem solving. Naturally we require a high standard of technical expertise as well.

This role would suit someone flexible who is also undertaking a similar role in a producing theatre or performance environment. The school is very happy to be flexible with other work requirements.

This is an incredibly exciting time to join Ringwood School as our Performing Arts department have just been recognised as an Area of Excellence by a national organisation, Challenge Partners. As such we continue to build on our strong reputation within the local community and further afield for both our productions and our growing course offer in the area of Performing Arts.

Hours: 15.00 hours per week (annualised as a flexible approach will be needed at performance times. You must also be available to work varied and unsocial hours, including evening and weekends)

Salary: Grade D1 £10.30 per hour pro rata (FTE £19,810.00 p.a. for 37.00 hours per week, 52 weeks per annum).

The successful candidates will have to meet the requirements of the person specification, will be required to have an enhanced DBS check and will have applied via the school application form. Ringwood School is committed to safeguarding students. We welcome applications regardless of age, gender, ethnicity or religion.

Please apply online to the school's website: www.ringwood.hants.sch.uk Applications will be dealt with on submission.
